

PRESS RELEASE

23 March 2017

“Claartje van Fulpen was nominated for the European Counsel Awards 2017 in the Employment’s Law Category”

2017 is a year of celebrations. Not only because of our 25th anniversary, we celebrate also the talent of our team’s members.

We are proud to share that our Vice-President Administration, Claartje van Fulpen, was nominated for the prestigious European Counsel Awards for people that excel in their specific roles. Claartje was nominated in the category Employment Law.

Lexology and the International Law Office (ILO), together with the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC), hosted the tenth annual European Counsel Awards in London to announce the winners.

In total 1500 candidates were chosen and in the end only four individuals became a nominee in the category Employment law. In this short list, Claartje, competed for the award with representatives of Amazon, Lego and Colt.

According to Claartje: “Though Amazon won the award, it was a great honor to be nominated and to represent Mitsubishi Caterpillar Forklift Europe B.V. together with Marly Bijnen in such an ambitious business environment”.

The Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) is a worldwide, well recognized network of professionals and it serves corporate counsels/in-house attorneys with broad professional legal educational services, by sharing knowledge worldwide.

It is a privilege for our company to have been nominated to this prestigious award thanks to the reputation and work of Claartje van Fulpen.
